The Center for Health Equity (CHE), the Minnesota Center for Cancer Collaborations (MC3) and the Clinical Translational Science Institute (CTSI-Ed) are pleased to bring back the Write Winning Grants seminar presented by the Grant Writers' Seminars and Workshops LLC. A day-long seminar of their widely acclaimed seminar comprehensively addressing practical and conceptual aspects important to the proposal-writing process geared towards NIH, but applicable to other national funding agencies. This workshop is designed for faculty members, post-doctoral fellows, graduate students, and community members who conduct clinical and translational or health equity research.

There is limited space available for this seminar and priority goes to CTSI KL2, BIRCWH K12, CHRCDA, K12 Scholar, on the CTSI MAC, junior faculty doing "clinical and translational" research, eligible through the MC3 program, or a Center for Health Equity or a health disparities investigator.

To apply for this seminar visit our website:
http://register.cce.umn.edu/Course.pl?sect_key=186902

Wednesday, January 16, 2013
8:30am - 4:00pm
McNamara Alumni Center, Johnson Great Room

Funding for this program was made possible in part by 1P60MD003422 (PI Ahluwalia) by U54CA153603 (PI Okuyemi) from the National Cancer Institute to the Minnesota Center for Cancer Collaborations (MC3) from the National Institute on Minority Health and Health Disparities to the University of Minnesota Center for Health Equity and by 1UL1RR033183 (PI Blazar) from the National Center for Research Resources to the University of Minnesota Clinical and Translational Science Institute (CTSI). The views expressed in written program materials or publications and by speakers and moderators do not necessarily reflect the official policies of the Department of Health and Human Services; nor does mention by trade names, commercial practices or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government.